The Seville Journal

(Owing to some unforeseen delay this section of the Seville letter did not arrive in Medina in time to get on the Seville Journal page; also it was necessary to omit some.)

The 11th annual reunion of the Bartlett family was held on Thursday, Aug. 4, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Eby, which was voted an ideal place to hold a reunion. A bounteous dinner was served to nearly 100 Bartletts and their relatives. A short program of singing, and contests were indulged in and the children who received prizes were very proud. After the program ice cream and cake was served. About six o'clock the relatives and friends started for their homes, declaring it was the best Bartlett reunion ever held.

Mrs. Paul Elliott's S. S. class of young ladies of the Presbyterian church, held their picnic at the Walter Hay home last week Wednesday afternoon and evening. A general good time was had by all. picnic supper was served cafeteria style.

The Seville ball team played the Miller Indians at Akron Saturday and brought the honors home 5 to 3.

Last Sabbath evening, Aug. 7, one of the most impressive services ever held in Seville was the union services at the Baptist church, in honor of Rev. Gardiner of the Methodist church, whose failing health requires absolute rest. Rev. Gardiner was unable to fill the pulpit as he had expected to, and Rev. Mavis of Cleveland accepted on short notice. He expressed the feelings of the large audience when he said that it was with regret and sorrow that Seville saw this highly esteemed Christian gentleman and wife go away. Their four years of faithful service here was an inspiration and help to all with whom they came in contact. A rising vote testified to their love and appreciation of their life amongst us. The love and prayers of the people will follow them to their home in or near Akron, where they will locate upon their return from the Soo, Mich., where he will spend the next six weeks. Rev. and Mrs. Gardiner started for the Soo on Wednesday.

On Monday afternoon and evening the members of the Methodist Episcopal church gathered at the church in honor of and farewell to their pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Gardiner, who left Wednesday for the Soo. Rev. Gardiner will not return to Seville as pastor of the church. After the bounteous picnic supper was served to 150 members of the church, a short program of music and speaking was rendered. Rev. E. L. Smith, in behalf of the members of the church presented Rev. Gardiner and wife with a $200 purse, which was a great surprise to them. Rev. Gardiner and wife responded with thanks. They left Seville with the best of wishes and prayers of the members of his church, who deeply regret their leaving.

Mrs. Arthur Campbell was thoroughly surprised on Sunday morning when his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Crush and Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Crush and son, Raymond and Mrs. Mina DeLong came to help her celebrate her birthday, bringing their baskets full of good things for the dinner. Mrs. C. M. Crush, mother of Mrs. Campbell, 82 years old, baked the cake. She also received a number of gifts from friends.
